"Sam, why haven't you brushed your teeth?" Sam's mother asked him angrily. Though Sam did not like to brush his teeth, his mother always made sure that he brushed them twice a day.

One day, Sam's parents had a wedding dinner to attend. Since they were going to be home late, Sam spent the night at his grandparents' house.

Sam felt happy as he knew that his grandparents would not make him brush his teeth. However, something happened that night which made Sam change his mind. When Sam entered his grandparents' room to wish them good night, he saw his grandfather removing a set of teeth. "Did grandpa lose his teeth because he did not brush them?" Sam wondered.

After that night, Sam always brushed his teeth when he woke up in the morning and before he went to bed. His mother did not have to remind him again.

Read the nursery rhyme below.

The Queen Of Hearts

The Queen of Hearts
She made some tarts,
All on a summer's day;
The Knave of Hearts
He stole some tarts
And took them clean away.

The King of Hearts
Called for the tarts,
And beat the Knave full sore;
The Knave of Hearts
Brought back the tarts,
And vowed he'd steal no more.

Section H: Comprehension (7 m)

Read the passage below carefully. Then answer the questions carefully.

One day, Rabbit brought his basket to the mountain slope nearby to pick some mushrooms. Soon, his basket was heavy.

Suddenly, Rabbit saw a big wolf nearby. He did not have time to run away and was terrified. Then, a brilliant idea struck him.

"Oooh! My stomach is so painful!" hollered Rabbit while pressing on his stomach.

The wolf came nearer and asked, "What happened?"

"I must have eaten some poisonous mushrooms," cried Rabbit. "I will die soon!"

Rabbit then closed his eyes, dropped to the ground and stopped moving.

The wolf thought to himself, "Rabbit meat is tasty. What a pity that it is poisoned! I sure do not want to get sick from eating it!"

The wolf sniffed at Rabbit for a while and went away, leaving him behind. After making sure that the wolf was far away, Rabbit got up. After that, Rabbit picked up his basket and hopped home as fast as he could. What a narrow escape for the rabbit!

29. Why did Rabbit press on his stomach? (1m)

- (1) His stomach was painful.
- (2) He was pretending to be poisoned.
- (3) He was poisoned and would die soon. ( )

30. Put the numbers (1, 2 and 3) in the boxes to show the correct order of events. (1m)

Read the passage.

The sun had just risen and the gentle breeze blew. William and Sam were on their way to the beach. William packed two packets of orange juice and some fruits in a picnic basket. His mother made sandwiches for them. Sam brought along a picnic mat, two spades and a pail.

When they reached the beach, William and Sam found a shady spot to lay the picnic mat. Then, they ran to the shore with the pail and spades. Sam used the spade and dug the sand. Next, William collected some seawater and poured it gently onto the sand. The seawater held the sand together like glue. Using his hands, William patted the sand into a sandcastle. Finally, they decorated the sandcastle with seashells.

Sam and William returned to the mat. They enjoyed the food while admiring their beautiful sandcastle.

Passage 2 (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage.

One morning, Ant went for a walk. She found a big green fruit. She was so excited that she shouted, "I like sweets and I like chocolates but I like watermelon best!"

Ant used a stick to poke the watermelon. It did not make a dent. Then, Ant hit it with a stone. He tried many times but the watermelon did not split open.

Just then, Mule walked by. Ant hid behind the watermelon.

"Good morning, Mule," Ant said. "I am the watermelon. Will you kick me down the hill to my home?"

Mule found it interesting to meet a talking watermelon. He listened to it and gave it a kick.

The watermelon rolled down the hill without stopping. The watermelon hit a huge rock and split into two!

Ant's mouth watered as he had the watermelon for lunch.

Read the passage and complete the questions.

Gill the giraffe sat sobbing sadly alone under a tree. Her giraffe friends had laughed at her because she had a much shorter neck than them. Their nasty words kept ringing in her ears. They had also refused to play with her. Poor Gill!

Suddenly, Gill heard a loud crash nearby. Turning around, she saw a small black bird lying on the ground. Bobbi the bird could not fly well. He had hit the ground loudly when he fell down. Gill went to help him up. She found out that Bobbi had no friends and was feeling lonely too. Gill and Bobbi became friends and started playing hide-and-seek together.

Soon, it was Bobbi's turn to hide. He was very excited. Gill stuck her head into a hole to look for Bobbi. After a while, she could not put her head out. Gill screamed in fear. Bobbi was horrified. Feeling worried, he rushed to get help. In his hurry, he started to flap his wings fast and flew far away.

Help finally arrived. Bobbi returned with some animals. Bobbi stood there watching while the other animals pulled Gill hard to get her head out of the hole. To everyone's surprise, Gill's neck became longer when she was finally freed. Everyone clapped happily. From that day on, Gill and Bobbi were never left out in any games by the other animals again.

Answer questions 16 and 17 by choosing the most suitable answer and writing its number (1, 2 or 3) in the brackets. Answer questions 18 and 19 in complete sentences.

There lived a mother crab with her baby in a pond. One day, the mother crab left her baby in the pond and went to search for food.

The baby crab decided to take a walk to the field near the pond. She thought she would find more food there and wanted to surprise her mother. So she crawled out of the pond.

There was a hungry fox just next to the pond. He was searching for food but could not find anything to eat. As he was drinking at the pond, he saw the baby crab crawling out. His mouth watered as he thought about eating the crab.

10

The fox caught the baby crab. The baby crab begged the fox to let her go. She said, "I am very small, so you will still be hungry after eating me. I will call my friends here so that you can eat all of us." The fox wanted to eat more crabs so he released her. Immediately, the crab vanished into the water. The fox waited a long time for his feast of crabs but the baby crab never came back!

It was the first day of the September holidays. Peter and Jane decided to go to Bukit Timah Hill. As they were climbing to the top of the hill, they saw monkeys swinging on the trees and squirrels scurrying around looking for food.

Just then, Peter and Jane heard a loud but low noise that sounded like a fierce animal. Feeling afraid, they quickly hid behind a tree. They also did not want to be attacked by the animal. It turned out to be a wild boar's grunt! Without warning, it rushed past the siblings.

"Oh no! Let's leave this place now!" screamed Jane as she turned and ran down the hill. Peter kept looking behind him worriedly as he followed Jane closely.

Once they reached home, they told their parents about what had happened. Their father told them that wild boars had been spotted in some places near Bukit Timah Hill and they should be careful if they wanted to go there again.

One day, two friends named Henry and Roger were walking through the forest. The sun was shining brightly. They knew that the forest was a dangerous place to explore. Both of them promised to stay together and be united when faced with danger.

Suddenly, they saw an enormous bear approaching them. Henry 5 climbed up a nearby tree immediately. Roger did not know how to climb the tree. He felt shocked and helpless. He decided to lie down on the ground and pretend to be a dead man.

The bear came near Roger. It smelt his ears. Then, it left him.
Henry came down from the tree and asked Roger, "Roger, what did 10
the bear tell you in your ears?"

Roger replied, "The bear told me a true friend will always keep his promise." Henry realised his mistake and apologised to Roger. He felt ashamed of his actions.

Mrs Tan, Kim's neighbour, was ill. She asked Kim to look after her dog, Wally.

Mrs Tan told Kim what she had to do with Wally. Kim needed to feed Wally, walk him and play with him thrice a day. Wally was a happy dog. He liked to run and jump. Kim would use an old rag to play tug-of-war with Wally.

One morning, Kim was at home with Wally. After feeding him, it was time to play. However, Kim forgot to close the gate. When Wally saw the open gate, he bolted through it. He ran merrily down the street and went into Mrs Tan's garden. He ran around her house and jumped into her water fountain. Wally enjoyed splashing in the water fountain. Kim could not get Wally out of it.

Then, Kim spotted a rug near Mrs Tan's back door. She quickly grabbed it and waved it at Wally. Wally spotted the rug in Kim's hand and immediately leapt out of the water fountain. Soon, Wally joined Kim in his favourite game of tug-of-war.

Mrs Tan, who saw the whole incident, laughed heartily. She was pleased with Kim who had been taking good care of her dog, Wally.

Section D: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 21 to 28.

"We will be celebrating Teachers' Day next Wednesday," the prefect made an announcement during morning assembly. Alex and David were excited. They wanted to design a beautiful Teachers' Day card for their favourite Art teacher, Mrs Tay. Mrs Tay had been kind and encouraging. She made the lessons interesting by getting pupils to create art pieces with different materials. Hence, Alex and David looked forward to their art lessons every week.

The next day, Alex and David went to the library to start on Mrs Tay's card. Alex prepared coloured paper, cardboard and scissors while David brought glue and ribbons. Together, they spent hours in the library after school to make the special card for Mrs Tay. They could not wait to give it to her.

On Teachers' Day, Alex and David eagerly searched for Mrs Tay. Finally, they found her at the foyer.

"Happy Teachers' Day, Mrs Tay!" the two boys greeted Mrs Tay and handed their card to her. Mrs Tay was overjoyed when she saw the handmade card. She thanked the two boys for their kind thoughts and praised them for their efforts.

Section D: Comprehension (10 m)

Read the passage below and then answer questions 6 to 10.

Daniel goes to the supermarket with his mother once a week. He would help her push the shopping trolley. His mother would walk through the aisles and pick out different kinds of food for the family.

He likes to go to the supermarket with his mother. He enjoys shopping at the snack section most. His mother would buy snacks that he likes.

"Look, Mum! That lady is asking everyone to try some of that new snack!" Daniel said. Then, he stepped forward to take a closer look.

"Go ahead and give it a try!" Daniel's mother replied. She wanted Daniel to try new types of food.

"I don't think that's a good idea," Daniel said, shaking his head. He was afraid that the snack would taste awful. He did not like to try food that he was not familiar with. Dan's mother laughed and patted his head when she heard that.

Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Alan and Joe were classmates. They were good friends too. Joe liked to invite his friends to his house to play games.

One day, Joe invited Alan to his pool party. At the party, Alan did not enter the pool. He stood quietly at the side of the pool as he could not swim. He was ashamed and afraid to let anyone know about it.

All the children were playing tag in the pool. Joe noticed that Alan was not in the pool and asked him to join in the game. Alan finally told Joe the truth. Suddenly, Joe had a clever idea. He told Alan to stand at the shallow end of the pool to judge their second game. It was the ball toss game.

Alan had fun while water splashed onto him. He smiled brightly when Joe's team won the game. After the game, Alan realised he had an enjoyable time in the water. Joe suggested that Alan should learn swimming and he agreed.

Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Mrs Lee was cooking in the kitchen when she heard Alice crying. She wiped her hands hurriedly with a towel and threw it down carelessly. Then she ran into the garden. She did not notice that the towel had fallen onto the burning stove.

"What happened, Alice?" asked Mrs Lee.

Alice explained that she had cut her knee when she tripped over a stone and fell down.

Mrs Lee carried Alice into their house. She applied some cream on Alice's knee and placed a plaster on it. Suddenly, Alice smelled something burning and informed Mrs Lee who noticed that the kitchen had caught fire. She carried Alice and ran to their neighbour's house to call the fire brigade.

After a while, a fire engine arrived. The firemen quickly put out the fire. Mrs Lee thanked them and told them that she had learned her lesson.

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Two brothers lived near a forest. The older brother was a greedy person. He always ate all the food and took all the beautiful clothes.

One day, he walked into the forest to cut some wood. He came to a magic tree. The tree said, "Sir, please do not cut me down. If you let me off, I will give you two golden apples."

But the older brother wanted more. The magic tree decided to punish him. It gave him two more apples. When he ate the apples, he felt a sharp pain in his tummy.

After a while, the younger brother got worried. He searched for his brother in the forest. He found him lying in pain on the ground. He took him to see a doctor. In the end, the older brother learnt not to be greedy.
